"THE LITTLE PERSONAL TOUCH"

The difference between the commonplace and the unusual in decoration is often separated by a very narrow line.

The ability to add the certain personal touch which accomplishes this difference is born of long experience and careful study—mere experimenting is often expensive and always hazardous.

We therefore offer the benefits of our experience to those who appreciate the highest order of decorative results without the element of uncertainty or disappointment.

STEVEN'S CASE SWITCHED OVER TO HIGHER COURT

Bond Fixed at $250 for All
Cases Against Real Estate
Man Arrested Saturday

Charged in four complaints with acting as an immigrant agent without a license, and with having attempted to induce certain persons to leave the territory for employment elsewhere, O. A. Steven, who recently headed an exodus of local Portuguese to California, was arraigned before Circuit Judge Ashford today, the case having been transferred from district court. He was represented in court today by Attorney W. J. Robinson. At request of counsel, the matter was continued until next Wednesday morning, for plea.

One of the complaints charges Steven with having acted as an immigrant agent without a license. The other three charge that, on certain dates, he attempted to induce T. Canas, Juan Sabran and A. Obligar, Filipinos, to leave their present employers on promises of employment outside the territory. Bond has been fixed at $250, which covers all the cases.

Steven was arrested Saturday night on a warrant sworn out by the city attorney's office, and was kept by the police until he was able to secure bail. This was placed at $650, finally, Farm Corn putting up the money.

Word reached the city attorney's department shortly before the arrest that the auctioneer had a band of Filipinos recruited and ready to leave with him on the Great Northern the latter part of the week.

This brought matters down to where some action had to be taken, in the opinion of the department, and the warrants followed. The department holds that Steven is breaking the law of the territory in regard to the recruiting of labor.

The law in the case is as follows:

"Any person who by promise of employment outside the Territory of Hawaii, shall induce, entice or persuade, or aid or abet in inducing, enticing or persuading any servant or laborer who shall have contracted, either orally or in writing, to serve his employer for a specific length of time, to leave the service of said employer, during such time without the consent of said employer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and that 'No person shall engage in business as an emigrant agent without first having obtained a license from the treasurer of each county or city and county in which such business is entered into or carried on. He shall pay an annual fee of $500.'

WON'T TELL NAME OF MAN WHO INJURED HIM

Knocked down by an automobile on Saturday night, sustaining a fracture of the leg, Sakurada, a Japanese yard boy who lives on the corner of Berea and Pensacola streets, refused to give the name of the man who injured him when taken to the Queen's hospital yesterday. On the night of the accident, Sakurada was taken home by the driver to the Japanese hospital, but yesterday telephoned for the ambulance which transferred him to Queen's.

WALSH GUEST AT TWO AFFAIRS AT BIG ARMY POST

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 12.—Former Governor David I. Walsh of Massachusetts paid a visit to Schofield Barracks Saturday afternoon. He was entertained by a reception and tea in his honor given by Lieut. and Mrs. Charles D. Daly, and later at a dinner party given by Lieut. and Mrs. J. O. Daly. Mr. Herman, his secretary, was also a guest at these functions.

At the urgent request of Chaplain Ignatius Fealy, Governor Walsh made an address to almost 1000 soldiers who assembled to hear him at the Cavalry-Artillery Amusement hall. It was a patriotic address that was very appealing to the men of the service, and was received with great enthusiasm. Governor Walsh was accompanied to the hall by Gen. Frederick S. Stroug and other officers who were guests at the dinner party.

In opening his address he spoke of his embarrassment in knowing just how to address an audience of military men. "It was the same way once when I had to make a speech before a lot of children," he said. "I didn't know just what to say. 'Who is this?' I asked, pointing to my military aide who was in army uniform. 'He's a soldier,' said the children. 'What does a soldier do?' I asked. 'He fights,' replied the children. 'Well, then, who am I?' 'You're the governor,' they responded in chorus. 'What does a governor do?' I asked. 'Nothin'' was the staggering answer."

W. E. ROWELL, PROMINENT ENGINEER, AT QUEEN'S HOSPITAL, PARALYZED

W. E. Rowell, for many years before annexation superintendent of public works, is ill at the Queen's hospital suffering from a stroke of paralysis. He was taken there Saturday.

Mr. Rowell became almost totally blind a few years ago. Until that time he was actively engaged in some of the most important engineering works of the islands. The first steamer wharf in Hilo was built by him and he had charge of numerous territorial improvements since.

Mr. Rowell was one of the stalwart contingent of opposition members of the legislature during the Gibson regime in the early eighties.

OLD RUMOR OF KUHO- SHINGLE MOVE REVIVED

A political rumor published this morning revives an old story to the effect that Delegate Kuhio would retire from national politics to run for mayor and would throw his support for delegate to R. W. Shingle. The rumor also said that Mayor Lane would be a candidate for sheriff this fall.

For several years past this Kuhio-Shingle move has been one of the most persistent of rumors, but the wisecracks say now that it is as far away as ever, inasmuch as Kuhio declines to support any candidate for delegate who is not of Hawaiian or part-Hawaiian blood. The rumor that Lane would be a candidate for sheriff is several months old, but has been generally denied since it was first launched on the political waves.

Dame Rumor is also busy with prospective candidates for delegate. Among those mentioned are H. L. Holstein, Republican, and Palmer P. Woods, Democrat.

A meeting of the association is scheduled to be held next Wednesday, at which time the vacancy will be filled.

E. R. CAMERON HAS COVETED COMMISSION

Local Deputy Revenue Collector Appointed Inspector in Service By Washington

E. R. Cameron, general deputy revenue collector, who has been stationed with Collector J. F. Haley in Honolulu since last May, this morning received a pleasant surprise from Washington in the form of a commission appointing him United States Revenue Inspector. This is one of the most desirable positions in the internal revenue service. Though for the past few weeks it has been known that Mr. Cameron's excellent work in Hawaii had earned recognition from the government it was not expected that his appointment to his new position would come at such an early date.

It is believed that Mr. Cameron is the youngest man in the internal revenue holding the position to which he has just been commissioned. Politics has not entered into his selection. He has been in the revenue service since March, 1912, and has worked his way to his present position through efficiency entirely. During the ten months he has been in Hawaii he has been called upon to deal with practically all of the large taxpayers of the territory, often finding it necessary to materially increase their assessments. Thus far there has been nothing but praise for his uniform courtesy and marked ability as an accountant and expert on the income tax law.

"Nothing has given me more pleasure since assuming office than the news this morning of Mr. Cameron's well-earned promotion," said Collector J. F. Haley this morning. "I have been in daily touch with Mr. Cameron and his work since he came here last May. In that time he has been called upon to pass upon delicate subjects touching upon the assessment of taxpayers for back taxes, but I have yet to hear of any one who has been dissatisfied with his findings or who has had anything but praise for the uniform courtesy he has shown them. I am in a position to state that Mr. Cameron's deserved promotion has not been brought about through politics, but was made by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborn, strictly upon merit. I do not know what the department contemplates doing with Mr. Cameron but I trust that it will find it possible to continue him at work in this Territory until he has finished the task which brought him here last May."

DEAD FOR 20 YEARS, HE COMES TO LIFE

Memorial tablets will be torn down and discarded by the Tanaka family of Kumamoto prefecture, Japan, when a letter, steaming towards them on the Chiyo Maru, reaches them. For in the letter is the information that the dead has come to life—that H. Tanaka of Hawaii is the same who left Kumamoto 25 years ago, and has been mourned as dead for 20 years.

Five years after he arrived here Tanaka ceased to write to his people and they gave him up as dead. With appropriate ceremonial they erected a tablet to his memory and put on the garments of mourning. A little while ago they heard of the rich H. Tanaka, a contractor on a Puna plantation, and wrote to the Japanese consul here asking if he was of their family. Now the consul, H. Arita, has written back assuring them that the long lost has been found.

ASHES OF MRS. RENEAR WILL BE SHIPPED EAST

Memorial services will be held next Sunday for Mrs. Eunice Whitaker Rinear, wife of Charles W. Rinear, who died at her home in Honolulu last night. The remains will be cremated and the ashes forwarded to her former home in the East for interment. Mrs. Rinear, who was 65 years old, was a native of Millville, N. J., and made her first trip to Honolulu in the Morning Star, the old missionary ship. She was an ardent church worker and had a wide circle of friends throughout the islands.

NOTE—While the Hotel St. Francis will never lower its rates beneath the point at which it is possible to provide a service at least equal to that of the best metropolitan hotels in the world, it respectfully invites comparison between its charges and the tariff established by any other hotel of the first rank.
